THE DIVINE LIFE

The Pioneer Magazine of the Sixth Race

Whose Invisible Editor is the Conqueror on the white horse—the new Initiate in his solar body.

The Conqueror—to him I shall award to eat (the fruit) of the tree of life which is in the middle of the Garden of the God.

The award to the Conqueror, is the Eternal Memory: he shall eat the fruit of the tree of life (the fruitage of the life cycle) in the God's own abiding place, the mystical paradise or state of ineffable bliss.

The award to the Conqueror is conscious Immortality; he is to wear the crown of life, and nothing that originates in the soul-consciousness shall pass into the ablivion of the second death.

The Conqueror—to him I shall award to eat a share of the hidden manna and I shall award to him a white voting-pebble, and on the voting pebble (will be) a new name engraved, which no one knows but he who receives it.

The Conqueror—he shall be clothed in white garments, and I shall not at all erase his name from the book of life, but I shall acknowledge his name before my Father and before his Divinities.

The Conqueror shall not at all be punished by the second death. He who has an ear to hear, let him hear.

AMERICA FIRST!

To be an American, one cannot be a Catholic.
An American owes his first allegiance to his Country and his Flag,
A Catholic owes his first allegiance to Rome and the Pope.

WATCH AL SMITH!

—The Pope's Pet—

I KNOW the general run of the public will think I am prejudiced against Al Smith just on account of his religion they will say. Of course, there are grounds for such assumption as my battery of pamphlets and magazines in 1928 were in a large measure the cause of Al Smith's defeat throughout the country, judging from the thousands that were sold from the public newsstands and the other thousands shipped out to foreign parts. I know the first cry of the Roman Catholics will be, "Why do you continue to fight Al Smith when Hoover has proven himself such a dismal failure?" I'll tell you why I am so against Smith as I was so against the British offlet of King George —Herbert Hoover. I didn't favor Hoover in 1928 any more than I favored Al Smith. I contended the only way the unpopular British subject could be swallowed by the American people was to give them a distasteful Roman Catholic chaser and Al Smith proved to be the man who put Herbert Hoover in the White House! But will he the second time? No, absolutely, No! Smith, I feel, will be nominated as the Democratic choice to run against Herbert Hoover, the Republican choice, but if the American people are wise they will shun this British mistake who has brought nation-wide calamity upon their heads as much as they would shun the Pope's Pet, who, if elected, will be instrumental in bringing the Vatican to our shores to the everlasting glorification of everything Catholic. "Well," says the average Protestant, "I would rather have good times under Catholic Al Smith than starvation days under this British mugwump. I'll choose again. Before I chose, as I thought, between the lesser of two evils and voted for a Britisher in preference to the Pope's Choice—Al Smith. Now, being in a hungry mood, I'll just reverse my decision and give Smith a hand, with his cross and crucifix at his side and a keg of good lager beer to boot! Why not? Starving, dry from want of stimulants, and depressed to the limit. I don't give a damn if Smith and the whole Catholic Church run the country from now on. I'm sick of British Herbert Hoover and his spineless administration, so I'm for Al Smith this time!

Gentlemen of America, cannot you find a man who is 100% American, neither British or Catholic, neither a mugwump nor a Tammany politician, neither a scoundrel nor a submissive toe-kisser of Pope Pius? I think we can and we needn't look very hard. The man this time will create the Party. I know you think I am boosting my own game to the total destruction of the Republican and Democratic parties. But to tell the truth, I contend that if I am strong enough to break the British and Roman grip they hold on the country, I am strong enough to guide a new party, THE INDEPENDENT PEOPLE'S PARTY OF AMERICA into safe channels where Internationalism will not play the major part in our national affairs. Is it too late to form a third party against Smith and Hoover?

No, Never Too Late to Save America!

And that is just why I am here in Chicago giving you this message today. To save America from the grip of King George and Pope Pius and the International Bankers who have usurped their power from the people and are endeavoring to destroy the Republic through the intervention of a Foreign World Court where everything will operate to the everlasting glory of things foreign and autocratic.

Now, I, Harry E. Richeimer, am grounded in that one quality which makes presidents immune to the powers of darkness and that is spiritual development enough so to know good from evil, to judge between right and wrong and lastly the supreme qualification which will prove the salvation of America—the ability to judge between the Real and the False! I am no college graduate, but my thorough training in business and commercial schools gives me the insight into the management of national affairs and my ability to judge men will complete my inventory of eligibility enough so to ask you to vote for me in the coming three-cornered presidential campaign. A Roman on one corner, King George on the other, and myself, the "AMERICA FIRST" advocate on the third. I am not mad in placing my candidacy against Hoover or Smith for I contend my past record will bear scrutiny and will compare well to Mr. Hoover's Chinese record or Al Smith's Tammany romance.

I am now 50 years of age, of good health and perfect habits. My schooling of the past 20 years has been with a woman, who, as a journalist and editor, has taught me the one superior lesson preparatory to entering upon a career where the utmost sagacity, sound judgment and a fearless stand for the TRUTH is needful to qualify for the GREATEST SEAT ON EARTH! and that is to stand alone, and take orders from the small voice within which has been my only monitor and true guide. Presidents of the past have all, with one or two exceptions, taken their orders from outside sources, that is outside themselves, but I am and have been guided from a higher source within, for the past 20 years and it has proven itself well nigh infallible when the affairs of others were concerned.

I do not in a boastful manner propose to stump the country. My message will be carried to the people through the instrumentality of the pages of DIVINE LIFE and a score of pamphlets which I am about to scatter broadcast throughout America in defense of American ideals, standards and principles.

Let this one thing sink into your minds before voting this time. Is an American born free man of no avail or would you rather have foreigners control us from abroad, bring over their mediaeval crowns and vaticans and tell us and our children we are underground bastards, hirelings and American dunces and need foreign enlightenment! I know you would not and now give an American a chance to clean house and bring home to the everlasting honor and glory of the triumph over principles to gain the strength to subdue the whole world to our unrivalled, untarnished and unparalled AMERICANISM! ! !

PREPARE YE! PREPARE YE! PREPARE YE!

FOR one of the worst Presidential Campaigns that was ever witnessed here in these United States. Worst for the reason that there has been a rotten plot devised by both old line political parties to prevent the People from electing their own man. The game is this. They know that the People are forever through with them. I mean the War developing Democratic Party of the Wilson regime and the Panic developing Republican Party of the Hoover regime; and that the People now demand a Third Party not formed of the blighting Progressives who are but a rotten vestibule for both old line political parties to hold back real progressivism but a Party formed of men who have never had anything to do with politics or corruption, real men who love the Stars and Stripes and their Country better than the ill-gotten loot which keeps our political parties from functioning for and in the interests of the People.

What do they propose to do? Kill any candidate who succeeds in defeating their plans, throwing the whole Country in a state of uproar and confusion and seize the reins of Government by declaring their chosen head (chosen from among themselves) future Dictator of these United States, as the People they will say are no longer capable of choosing for themselves and that in the future they will appoint and direct (from either Democrat or Republican) the man who is to act as President after the manager plan so that the People's choice is a thing of the past, for we have passed unconsciously from the status of a Republic to a Monarchy!

The next President must be either a Democrat or a Republican. That is the fiat that has gone out of Europe and Wall Street where all our Presidents of late are hatched and nourished. And rather than see the People again come into their own by electing their own man, they will upset the Government and begin the Reign of the World Court where we are run from Europe, the status of the United States once more becoming a Colony of the British Crown (unconsciously). You know, say the British and British sympathizers in this Country, these so-called Americans are really so British themselves that it will be little trouble in changing their sentiments and bringing to their shores an offlet of King George and with a New Vatican established here in America with the Pope in his New Home we can well carry forward the plan we have in view with the support of all the Churches who are today British led or tending toward the European scheme of making us International. Then once this double-headed foreign contraption succeeds in functioning here in America please let the good so-called American People protest. Why, we could wipe them out in a fortnight with the immediate importation of Royal troops from Canada, Catholic troops through Mexico and troops from every Country in the World who will be a part of this World Court Program!

The King of England today in league with Pope Pius have long ago devised this plan to disrupt America as soon as the People have lost faith in the established existing order of things, for these two noble high-born crooks know that once the People of the Greatest Republic on Earth become Republic-conscious like the key-stone that supports the arch of Human Liberty and Freedom all other Countries on the face of Mother Earth will take the cue and become Republics to the everlasting degredation and destruction of Kings, Queens and Popely Potentates!

Now what do we propose to do about this Presidential business in 1932 when the People have been marked for slaughter? Listen. In not over four months from now Hoover will be advocating a War against the Reds here in these United States for his Japanese War is too thin a cloak to throw over the People to enable him to confuse matters at the last minute and slip in the Presidential Chair again on a fluke play as he succeeded in slipping in on the Anti-Catholic issue the last time.

I propose to start a Campaign through the columns of DIVINE LIFE to declare our present political system Republican and Democrat a menace to our Country and a direct appeal to the People of this Country to stop the invasion of Foreignism even if we have to declare War here in these United States against our present FOREIGN GOVERNMENT. Foreign Government I hear you say! Why you are mistaken; our Government is not Foreign, it is truly AMERICAN. It is, is it. Why cannot you see where things are going, with our venerable Secretary of the Treasury transferred to the Court of St. James, our imbecile Charles Dawes returned fresh from England to assume control as Head of this Huge Giant Financial Corporation where the life's blood of the American People is to be sacrificed and squandered on European choice, whim and caprice? Cannot you see that this British mugwump who today sits in your Presidential Chair has betrayed the U. S. A. as Judas ever betrayed his Master and now that he has succeeded in spreading this damnable depression so far as to break down the moral standards of the Nation and make us all hirelings of King George of England and the Pope at Rome he proposes in Hoover Bull Fashion to begin his own GREAT WAR in America to forever scotch and kill out the fire of Democracy in the Greatest Democracy on Earth! And then, How Great I AM, I, the God of Heaven, Earth and Hell, Greater than King or Pope have succeeded in conquering AMERICA, the home of the Stars and Stripes!

But wait, Herbert Hoover will never live to see the day that he accomplished the object of his heart's desire. For I repeat the People are now bent on changing things at Washington, D. C., even if they have to transfer the Capital seat from East to West and get away from the foreign environment that is surely sucking us into the maelstrom of foreign control.

The entire Country will presently be aflame with AMERICANISM and the AMERICA FIRST slogan will capture every heart under its fair emblem the Stars and Stripes and Hoover and the Democrats that have grown so rotten themselves as to be near putrefaction will be relegated to the limbo of the passe then will come this so-called War against the Reds who propose to change things from the British to the American complexion of things.

Here in Chicago we have these two factions working day and night to capture the Eagle and turn America foreignwise. The Cardinal of Mundelein and the British bloated bondholder of the People's Gas and Light Co., have both done their best at holding the foreign line in place and our foreign born Mayor is another example at making European things come first and American last. I say I am here in Chicago for a purpose and that purpose is now apparent.

I propose to keep AMERICA Safe for Americans and not let Cardinal Mundelein or Sam Insull sway the will of the People through their control of magic and dollars. I know it is a big task for a little man to assume but I hold that SPIRIT is greater than all the magical devices of Rome or the Gold glittering pomp of the Court at Buckingham Palace and once we declare War on these two foreign-controlled heads here in Chicago, the People will do away with their Churches, the People will own Sam's Gas, Electric and Elevated Systems, the People I say and repeat will come to the state of being class-conscious, and make AMERICANS the highest class in the social register with Crowns, Crosses and Crucifixes the abode of the ash-can and henceforth any Americans coming to this Country from abroad will not have to be Americanized for the Whole World has already turned American, because the Crowns of all foreign Countries have been waylaid and the Pope at the bottom of the Italian Bay which borders his Country praying alone for his own Salvation as the Salvation of others has already become apparent.

THE POPE SPEAKS BY "DIVINE COMMAND"!

THE POPE, beginning his radio speech, said he spoke in the "name of the prince of apostles, by Divine Command" for all people to hear.

"Listen, all people," he said, "Availing ourselves of the work of Senator Marconi, we use and bless, with the aid of God, this wonderful invention.

"Hear ye, people of the world, let our first words be:

"Glory to God in the highest and on earth, peace to men of good will."

The text of the Pope's radio address, as translated from Latin into English follows:

"We are the first successors of the Prince of Apostles to whom it has been given to speak to all nations and all places.

"Listen, ye heavens, to what I say. Listen, all ye islands. Let the first word be to the glory of God in the highest, and on earth peace and good will to men.

"Glory to God because He has given such power to men that their words may go to the end of the earth.

"Hear ye who speak; hear ye all nations; hear ye all who inhabit the face of the earth:

"We having the guidance of God on earth of all those who are on earth, it behooves us to speak to those of the Catholic Church.

"Our Lord Jesus Christ has given to us the shepherd of all the World, the office of caring for both the lambs and the sheep.

"You cardinals, patriarchs, archbishops and bishops and prelates scattered throughout the world we beg that each of you persevere in your vocation.

"God who brought forth the great Shepherd from the dead, He too begs that you persevere in every good.

"Now we speak to those who are confined to their convents and those who are engaged in the great ministry of spreading the gospel and who are in those houses of holy contemplation:

"Be ye diligent in your vocation. Already you know our custom. All ye who are propagating the church of Christ in foreign lands.

"You who have frequently been in chains, who have suffered trials and hardships, continue to win souls and to make soldiers for Christ, priests who are your great help in propagating the faith, we order for you to continue.

"To the bishops of the world, especially to you, persevere in your apostolic labor. You are an elected race, a royal priesthood, we offer our prayers that there may be one flock and one shepherd.

"To the rulers of the world we say that all power is from God.

"Subjects be ye obedient. He who resists power resists God and brings eternal damnation on yourself.

"To the rich we say: You are the ministers of divine providence; let your goods be dispensed to the poor. Remember the words of Christ—Woe to the rich.

"Poor people, remember the words of Christ, the example of Christ.

"It remains now at the end that the whole world and to all its inhabitants we give our apostolic benediction.

"In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost. —Amen."

Listen, ye people of the earth, I might reply to the childish words of this Mediaeval Monster, the Pope of Rome. "We, having the guidance of God on earth, and of all those on earth, it behooves us to speak to those of the Catholic Church." As though the Catholic Church were given complete charge of the whole people of this earth by God!

"Be ye diligent in your vocation (of making the whole world Catholic). Already you know our custom, all ye who are propagating the church of Christ in foreign lands." (And God help the Pope and his proselytes once mankind gets on to their custom.)

"To the bishops of the world, especially to you, persevere in your apostolic labor. You are an elected race, a royal priesthood. We offer our prayers that there may be one flock and one shepherd." (The autocratic Pope of Rome!)

Right here I wish to stop quoting this pious devil and ask the people of America whether they think this Italian representative of God has any right to declare and associate his autocratic pronouncement of an elected and royal priesthood governing mankind with the credentials, their plenipotentiaries, with the character of the Lowly Man of Galilee? Is there the least resemblance of the life of Christ with the representatives of this monkish, mediaeval pagentry that sits on a throne and tells the whole earth that he is the Great High Immortal, chosen by God to make them into One Universal Catholic Church? God forbid!

He is universal in one thing, his ability to lie, cheat and mislead all peoples and create and bring into being a race of autocrats, kings, princes and potentates, which if not soon expunged and annihilated, we shall suffer the pangs of Gethsemane with our Master, who in truth was crucified by the Cross of the Mother Church, the Church of Rome! —How Long Shall We Permit This to Continue?— Oh Lord, How Long? ? ?

A CHALLENGE TO THE POPE OF ROME AND HIS WORLD AUTOCRACY!

BY WHAT manner of logic can we look upon our fair emblem The Stars and Stripes as a representative and symbol of Free Government of the People throughout the world raised in the name of High Heaven as a standard of the Rights of Man, of Liberty, Freedom of Conscience and the Right to Think for Ourselves and associate it with the ways, manners and customs of the Roman Catholic Hierarchy whose sole aim throughout the ages has been one of slavery, tyranny and the subjugation of the spiritual impulses of all Nations to make one man with triple crown, sitting on a golden throne the Supreme Representative of Christ on Earth, who is wholly infallible and unliable to err?

Sir, the Voice of this Nation and of the Whole Earth shall never be still until that Despotic Potentate, the Pope of Rome, the Clown of the Ages, is laid low and his sperm to perpetuate himself is exterminated from off the face of our fair planet. We cannot associate Democracy with Autocracy for long lest we sacrifice the former at the expense of the latter. Autocracy in the Roman Catholic Church is so far advanced and developed as to encircle and enmesh all other Religions and Institutions and today we see the sorry spectacle of Protestants aligning themselves with Roman Catholics in Business, and for business alone as the love of Gold and the lure of Possession is so strong in their hearts as to completely upset their sound judgment, hide the original impulse of a forward movement to exterminate mediaeval paganism with its crowns, crosses, cucifixes, idols and insignia and liberate a World almost destroyed by Papal authority which rules no man responsible to any other than Mother Church where his sins are forgiven and his eternal welfare is weighed in the balance.

Sir, I hold our only true mission as Christians today is to totally dissolve this breathing corpse, Catholicism, and lest we permit it to live and contaminate the thought and actions of the rising generations we shall be heirs throughout Eternity to one of the greatest crimes and curses ever set upon the whole of Mankind and of a Free People; the error that compromises with the Devil, sharing our homes, our public institutions and our children with them, only to have them later on drive us from our fair Planet, scotch our Republics and freedom-loving institutions and give us the Immortal Chains we thus deserve to be Prometheus-like bound to the Ship of State for a thousand ages by those who sought our destruction, arrested our evolutionary development and accomplished it by acting like friends and betraying us again into Mediaeval darkness.

Sirs, the time has arrived for the Supreme Test of Autocracy and Democracy. Can Democracy live throughout the world without being any longer hampered, hounded and harrassed by Mediaeval Paganism? Can Men stand alone and proclaim themselves wholly free and independent Souls, accountable to no one save the Christ Spirit within themselves? Can the American Republic with its Ship of State glide on into greater and deeper waters without fear of being scuttled by the traitors on board? Can we in truth say the ends and purposes of the Forefathers have come to fruition, the objects accomplished for which this Fair Republic was brought into being and the Supreme Test of Liberty throughout the Whole Earth consummated in that "NEW BIRTH OF FREEDOM"?

Sirs, until we can say those ends have come to pass, we cannot view ourselves as any more burdened with the words and works of the Spawn of this Mediaeval Monster whose supreme thought today is to subjugate this Fair Republic, MAKE AMERICA CATHOLIC, and plunder and pillage the Whole Earth in the name of Jesus Christ!

The words of the Devil at Rome and his actions do not always coincide and lest we be caught napping we had best gird ourselves for the Greatest Battle that ever before befell any Republic: the Battle to Free America and the Whole Earth of the tentacles of Roman Magic operated through the Mass to enslave Mankind to the everlasting glory and modulation of Mother Church.

DEVOTION BY THE DIVINE PERFECTIONS

(From John Davies' Translation of the Bhagavad Gita)

HE HOLY ONE SPOKE: Hear further still, O large-armed one, my all-important works which I will speak to thee, who hast a delight therein, from a desire for thy good.

The hosts of Suras know not any origin of Me, nor the great Rishis, for I am the primal source of all the gods and the great Rishis.

He who knows Me, as unborn and without beginning, the Mighty Lord of the world, he of mortals is undeluded, he is freed from all sin.

Mind, knowledge, absence of illusion, patience, truth, self-restraint, tranquility, pleasure, pain, birth, death, fear, and courage also;

Innocence, evenness of mind, contentment, religious austerity, beneficence, glory and shame, these are the qualities of beings severally appointed by me.

The seven great Rishis, the four ancient (Fathers), and the Manus, partaking of My nature, were born from my mind: from them the races of Mankind have sprung.

He who knows in truth that pre-eminence and mystic power of mine is united (to Me) by unfailing devotion: of that there is no doubt.

I am the source of all things; the whole (universe) proceeds from Me: thinking thus, the wise who share my nature worship Me.

Thinking of Me, having their life absorbed in Me, instructing each other and ever glorifying Me, they are contented and happy.

To these, constantly devout, who worship with the service of love, I give that mental devotion by which they come to Me.

In them, I destroy from compassion, dwelling in their souls, the darkness which is born of ignorance, by the bright lamp of knowledge.

Arjuna spoke:

Thou art the Supreme Brahma, the supreme abode, the best purification, the Eternal Creator, Divine, First of Gods, Unborn, the Lord. Thus all the Rishis proclaim thee, and also the divine Rishi, Narada; thus too Asita, Devala, and Vyasa: thus thou declarest thyself to me. I believe that all which thou sayest is true, O Kesava! for neither gods nor Danavas understand thy manifestation (in bodily form) O Holy One! Thou alone knowest thyself by thyself, O best of beings! Creator of all things, Lord of all, the God of gods, Ruler of the Universe! It is meet for thee to declare fully thy divine perfections by which these worlds are constantly pervaded by thee. How shall I, by ever meditating, know thee, O mystic One? In what forms of being mayst thou, O mighty Lord! be comprehended by me? Declare to me again and fully thy mystic nature and thy perfections, O conqueror of men! for I am never sated in hearing thy immortal (ambrosial words).

The Holy One spoke.

Well, I will declare to thee my divine perfections by means of the chief of them (only), O best of Kurus! For there is no end of my greatness. I am the soul, O Gudakesu! seated in the heart of every creature. I am the beginning and the middle and the end of all things. Among the Adityas I am Vishnu; among luminous things the resplendent

Sun. I am Marichi among the Maruts and the Moon among the constellations. I am the Sama (Veda) of the Vedas, I am Vasava of the gods. Of the senses I am manas; I am the intellect in living beings. Of the Rudras I am Sankara, and Vittesa of the Yakshas and Rakshasas. Of the Vasus I am Pavaka (fire); of the mountain peaks I am Meru. Know, O son of Pritha; that I am Vrihaspati, the chief of household priests: of the chiefs in war I am Skanda, and of waters I am the Ocean. Of the great Rishis I am Bhrigu, and of words the syllable OM. Of offerings I am the japa-offering, of mountains the Himalaya (range). Of all trees I am the sacred fig-tree (aswattha), and of divine Rishis, Narada. Of the Gandharvas I am Chitraratha; of the perfect ones the recluse muni, Kapila. Know that I am of horses Uchchaihsravas, born of the Amrita, and among men I am the king. Of weapons of war I am the thunderbolt, and of the cows the Kamaduk. I am the progenitor Kandarpa, and of serpents, I am Vasuki. Of the snakes I am Ananta, and among beings of the waters, Varuna. Of the Pitris (ancestral manes) I am Aryama, and of judges I am Yama. Of the Daityas I am Prahlada, and of things that measure I am Time. Of wild beasts I am the Tiger, and Vainateya of birds. Of purifiers I am the wind, and of those who bear weapons Rama. Of fishes I am Makara, and of rivers I am the Ganges. Of emanations (creation) I am the beginning and the end, and I am also the middle, Arjuna! Of the kinds of knowledge I am the knowledge of the Supreme Spirit (Adhyatman) of those who speak I am the Speech. I am the letter A among letters, the dwandwa in compound words; I am also Eternal

Time; I am the sustainer whose presence is on every side. I am Death that seizes all, and the Source of all that are to come. Of feminine words I am Fame, Fortune, and Speech, Memory, Intelligence, Constancy, and Patience. Among the songs of the Sama-Veda I am the Vrihatsaman, and the Gayatri among metrical forms. Of months I am the Margasirsha, and of seasons the flowery Spring. I am the Dice play of the fraudulent, and the Splendour of the splendid. I am Victory, I am Effort, I am the Goodness of the Good. Of the sons of Vrishni I am Vasudeva, of the Pandavas the Subduer of wealth (Arjuna). Of the munis I am Vyasa, and of sages Usana the wise. Of things that subdue I am the Rod, and the Polity of those who seek to conquer. Of secret things I am Silence, and the knowledge of those who know. And whatever is of living things the seed, I am That, Arjuna! There is nothing, whether moving or fixed, that can exist without Me. There is no end of my divine perfections, O slayer of foes! But this recital of my glory has been uttered by Me by way of instances thereof. Whatever thing is preeminent, glorious, or strong know that all is the issue of a part of my power; But what hast thou to do with this vast extent of knowledge, Arjuna? I have established in continuance of all this Universe by one part of myself.

Thus the Bhagavad Gita, reading the tenth, whose title is

"Devotion by the Divine Perfections."

MAN, THE BODILY FORM OF GOD, OR, THE WHEEL OF SACRIFICE

THUS the tenth chapter of the blessed Bhagavad Gita gives us a clue to the personification of the Infinite, the ONE in many, the manifestation of God as MAN. I know volume upon volume has been written by men (who knew not) about God being away in the far off Heavens and Union therewith never attainable whilst here in an earth body. This of course agrees with all the pronouncements of modern writers, preachers, teachers, and thinkers. None will, however, admit that communication with God, nay absorption in God, whilst here on Earth is at all permissible or attainable, a feat that the ancients all desired to accomplish. Yet here in this 10th chapter of the Davies' translation of the blessed Bhagavad Gita he describes God in bodily form and His Divine attributes and perfections.

The whole matter rests with the transcendental mind. After mind is discerned to be "the Great Destroyer of the Real," the student rises above mind, and lives more in the higher principles or Triad, the Atma-Buddi-Manas. Here he discerns That which is above the modes of action, and is able to know the Truth without the aid of reason or speculation. He has in other words become at-one with the Father. Jesus says: "I and my Father are one, yet my Father is greater than I." Krishna, the Lord of Yoga or Union in the blessed Bhagavad Gita says: "Bow down to me, worship Me, cling to Me, for thou (lower self, or Arjuna), art very dear to Me, and thou shalt come to Me (in an earth body), I swear it." Here we see in both instances the need or imperativeness of coming into Union with our own Higher Self. And once we do gain this delectable Union we speak, write and think on a higher plane than Mind or Manas, as the Atma or Buddhic principles have come into play. The Father (Higher Self) knows all. Man has become God here on Earth, as Krishna says: "I sustain all the three Worlds by a portion of myself (revealed) as Man or Manas, and it is for Man or Manas to translate Nature into terms or expressions of the Infinite.

"Alas, alas, that all Men should possess Alaya (Higher Self or Soul), and possessing it Alaya should so little avail them." Might he not have also said, alas, alas, that all Men are a part of God and that being Gods themselves, the God-head has not shown through the dense, thick folds of material existence in which they are immersed. One would think they acted more like animals than Gods when they stoop to conquer each other.

This one fact has been mistreated more than any other in the study of all religions. GOD, the fountain-head, has been pictured as a King, sitting on a Golden throne, similar to the one Pope Pius now occupies in the Vatican ruling the whole Universe. Here indeed he has been misplaced as he only rules and resides in the core of the Heart of Man; and there He will remain until the end of Days, until Man again comes to his senses and finds Him after he has slain all pretenders and intermediates.

It is rather laughable when we hear the Pope broadcasting to the High Heavens and the People of the Islands: "Listen to me, Oh ye Heavens," Listen to Me (the Great I AM), and his admonition to the rich to give all their possessions to the Lord and follow him. I take it Pius (not Pious), Pope meant give unto the Mother Church all your surplus cash if you want to be saved by the Church. For you don't think he would countenance them giving away anything to the poor! What blasphemy, what hypocrisy, what low begging and stealing in the name of the Lord! Would that the whole Roman Catholic edifice with its altars of gold and precious stones embedded in priceless idols, perish than that another dollar be wasted on this mediaeval foolishness than that one God-soul should suffer, when he (the Pope) sits on his Golden Throne and rules the Whole Earth in the name of the lowly man (pauper) of Galilee! What a lesson to the God in Man!

Not God within the Soul of Man, but God in the very being, life and heart-beats and expression of Man, throbbing to become at-one with each other in brotherly love, living and let living and by the backward movement or backness to God, and Oneness of Humanity all pretenders and intermediates become non-plussed at the open wrath of a Righteous Mankind who have been fooled so long by those who have rather played the part of a Foolish God, in Rich Vestments, than to have stepped down on a level with their fellowmen and assumed the Godhead by their meekness, lowliness and poverty in their endeavor to serve their fellow-man in perfect sacrifice to the God within, who sacrificed Himself that they might be brought into being!

THE UNITY HOAX
or Fillmore's Glory!

HEN once a Republic becomes so materialistic as to worship Gold to the everlasting glory of the personal self in distinction to Spirit to the everlasting glory of the Eternal Self within, it is about time all things are being relegated to the limbo of ancient ceremonials, black magic and psychic powers which make for health, wealth and success.

Today UNITY has a stranglehold on the people throughout the Nation because it promises whatever you wish in your heart will be manifest on the physical plane. It asserts I AM GOD and no harm can come near me. It asserts itself strongly in worldly wisdom and riches and makes the founder, Mr. Fillmore, a former Unitarian minister, the center of attraction, though nearly all the followers will deny this.

Why can't you leave others alone, I hear from all sides. All you do is to criticise. You won't get very far if you continue your destructive course of criticising everybody else. Now, my dear critics, I want to make the following prediction (as usual). The Movement of UNITY will end with Fillmore behind iron bars. There are better crooks than Fillmore running loose who deserve more bitter punishment, but when it comes to hiding behind religion to rake in the shack shekels, Mr. Fillmore is the Prince of them all. He deserves a Unitarian medal for chicanery, pure bunk and astralism that gives him the power of catching all weak Egos who wish to hitch their wagon to the star of UNITY and pull a load of Gold across the Milky Way.

I'm not afraid of Fillmore or his whole Unitarian crowd that promise dire results and defeat to all those who oppose them. I will promise Mr. Fillmore that in 60 days after this article is published that he can expect a return flow from the bowels of Mother Earth which may not prove all Gold for his term of Black Magic has now about come to an end.

His silent Unity Bank is the greatest hoax that was ever put over the American people. Get rich, get success, get anything you want (in the name of the God of UNITY). What bunk, what outright hypnotic glamour. You can catch the masses today with anything providing you heal their bodies, fill their purses and cause them to giggle at the trials and temptations of life. You can rise into fame over night providing you don't ask them to sacrifice themselves for TRUTH, providing you promise them ease, comfort and style, providing you make your renunciation light enough so as not to disturb their personal likes and dislikes, as though GOD acted that way to bring folks into submission to His Divine Plan.

I know I shall have a heap of trouble hurled at me for assailing Fillmore, for today he sits on the crest of the wave and with his Unitarian wand in hand, gives to all people the object of their secret wishes and desires. Wonderful! I hear people say, it's all in the name of the Lord! How nice to press the magic button and, lo and behold, what I want comes to my door. Why, it's even better than Christian Science which heals your body, fills your purse and makes you happy! I say it is even better than Christian Science in that each and every individual becomes a silent magician, powerful, alert, filled with the true Spirit of GOD!

Now, again I want the public to know why I am exposing UNITY. To break it down and make the DIVINE LIFE work more popular and powerful? No, a thousand times, No. I do not expect to turn the heads of a million fools who run after Fillmore to complete their wishes so that their pandora box is filled with earth's measure of success, but I do expect DIVINE LIFE will succeed in breaking the WILL OF POWER he exerts over the masses of America today who are seeking UNITY in order to better their worldly careers. I am not a prophet in the sense of telling fortunes, but I predict Mr. Fillmore will need more than one filled Silent Unity Bank to bale him out of Hell for the deception he has played humanity in the name of religion and at the same time has succeeded in inducing the gullible to fill their little Unitarian banks with pennies, nickels, dimes and dollars so that he might better live on the fat of the land and pose as a Sacrifice to Truth, a shining jewel in the spiritual realm, when today he is kept busy explaining to the authorities why he should not be residing in Federal Prison at Atlanta!
